

Wiggert It, Just a Little Bit

Horsham TTC's National Junior League tasted glory at the latest meeting (Day 3), winning Division 3 in a tight battle with Brighton TTC's C team. Teammates could have been forgiven for regaling the tune 'Wiggert it, just a little bit' after the side's Dutch maestro, Wiggert Vermeer, turned in a promotion winning performance by winning all 10 of his singles matches.

Shibu brothers, Alain and Aalrin, made vital contributions too, both with six out of nine records. They drew their big game with Brighton C 3-3 to set up a tense final round of matches with both of the top two being level on games won. However in that climax Horsham beat Spinners C 6-0 whilst Darenth B stole an all important point off Brighton C to make the difference in Horsham's favour. So the joy of promotion but the prospect of a much tougher final Day 4 ahead.

Day 3 of the National Cadet League in Brighton and the matches for the 11 Horsham TTC teams involved came thick and fast again.

After finishing bottom spot in Division 1 at the end of Day 2 the week before Horsham A was given a relegation reprieve virtue of a request by the organisers linked to the strength of teams present. They made good use of their fortune by winning three, drawing one and only losing to eventual top team Brighton A. Rahil Rehman-Furs and Zack Bull were both magnificent in recording 80% win rates and Ishaan Patil improved significantly to secure a 40% level.

The other Horsham teams in the top tier didn't fare quite so well. Evan Erskine and Sam Mockett both won 4 for the B's to keep their team afloat from relegation. Rowan Smith added two to the cause. Promoted Horsham C found the heat in their new kitchen a bit stifling. Having been unbeaten the week before Owen Davies experienced a reversal in fortunes to come out winless this week. A TT life can be a fickle one and dealing with lows as well as highs is a key part of an emerging player's learning. Adrian Randis won two to give respectability, not bad for a lad who's just turned nine. Steve Ledger contributed one.

Horsham D will replace the Cs in the top tier next time out in late April. It wasn't expected or straightforward as they opened their day with two draws and only ended up prevailing by virtue of countback having finished level with Spinners A on 19 points. A particular well done to Zac Coles for leading the line with eight wins from his ten matches but good support was given by Zaib Rehman-Furs and Harry Chitty as part of a real team effort.

Horsham's J, E and H teams all finished in the lower half. Jude Lane was J's inspiration with a 90% win record but well done to Jason Bourne for adding three and Dan Peskett with two wins in the mid-tier on his debut. Friends Logan Newton and Benedict Winter were solid at the heart of the Horsham E effort. Alfie Lockwood was doing well for them too until being forced to withdraw with a shoulder strain and thus hampering the team's ambitions.

A Billingshurst filled Horsham H team competed well and won one match and with 11 points total can consider themselves to be relegated back to Division C next time. Harry Llewellyn with seven wins from his nine matches continues to catch the eye with his improvement. Charlie Alder added two and although Josh Pullen came away winless he appears to have the resilience which is a vital component of any TT player's make-up.

Four Horsham teams contested Division C. Whilst no team could match Spinners B who won five straight, Horsham F got closest to them with two wins and two draws. Well done to Zac Brown, Devmi Thiksana and Leon Lukose as part of a real team effort. Horsham I's Sam Abrehart and George Reynolds both achieved 70% win rates to elevate them into third spot despite their handicap of being a player short due to a late withdrawal.

Great to see Horsham K, the club's youngest crew, doing so well. Joe Collins won a respectable three from eight, Caleb Belton a storming four from eight and Charlie Pembroke adding two to the team account. Another two-man side, Horsham G, finished up propping up the table despite Luke Harrison's superb eight wins. Max Middleton had one of those days in losing all his games but good to see him showing a solid mentality amid the adversity. He'll be back to fight another day.
