

Take Tat Top of the Charts

Week 3 of the Horsham TT Matchplay Nights competition process saw all players involved in a Super 16 format designed to give everybody a similar amount of games irrespective of success level. Some players were given handicap advantages to help them against more experienced opponents. A number of good games ensued.

Armed with a five point per game start Brenda Taylor made youngster Rahil Rehman-Furs earn his passage to the top half of the second round of matches. Charlie P did manage to make his six per game start over Bilal Rehman-Furs count. Liam Cuffe took on Shane O'Brien, both operating off scratch, to win a first round battle of the big boys 3-2 in sets. Gill Hood progressed at the expense of Zaib Rehman-Furs and Tat On Man consigned Katie Warner to the bottom half.

Chris Goodier ruthlessly ended Rahil Rehman-Furs' hopes of top half glory whilst Gill Hood at least took a set off On Man on her way to second match defeat. In the lower half Katie Warner progressed out of three close sets with her son Harry and Shane O'Brien stamped his authority at the expense of Bilal Rehman-Furs.

Goodier beat Gill Harding in straight sets to earn his final place against Tat On Man who required the full five sets to deal with combination bat maestro Cuffe. Cuffe gained some consolation by beating Gill Harding in four sets to claim third spot whilst in the final On Man had just too much for Goodier running out victor 12-10, 11-8 and 11-9.

Rahil Rehman-Furs took fifth by beating Hood in straight sets. Young Jude Lane lost in his final match to O'Brien but will have learned a lot against a more experienced and senior opponent. Zaib Rehman-Furs ended his night on a high by beating Katie Warner and Taylor got her first win in her last match against Warner junior.
